Mainstreaming Impacts and Dependencies in the Post-2020 Global Biodiversity Framework

Wednesday, July 8 2020

13:00-15:00 BST 14:00-16:00 CET
08:00-10:00 EST 15:00-17:00 APAC

About this session

This session will showcase how companies and financial institutions are mainstreaming concerns related to nature and human well-being into the way they do business.

A key challenge of the Post-2020 Global Biodiversity Framework is to mainstream biodiversity concerns in to key economic sectors.

This session will deepen understanding of the challenges and opportunities for mainstreaming nature into business and finance, with a focus on financial accounting and spatial finance.

Virtual Biodiversity Dialogues
June - July 2020 and September-October

The Post-2020 Pavilion is international partnership that is organizing a six-day programme of substantive sessions at the IUCN World Conservation Congress 2021, all related to key issues in the Post-2020 Global Biodiversity Framework (GBF) negotiations. The Pavilion Partners are united in their collective drive for transformative change to ensure that the GBF is sufficiently ambitious, scientifically grounded and mission-aligned. In preparation of the Post-2020 Pavilion, the Virtual Biodiversity Dialogue Series are being convened with Post-2020 Pavilion Partners and other experts in June-July, and then again September-October.

The key objectives of the Biodiversity Dialogues are to deepen collective thinking, prepare for the actual Post-2020 Pavilion events, and generate powerful messages for the UNGA Biodiversity Summit.
